

TRANSITION BACK TO RAPATTONI

KEY POINTS

Both Rapattoni and Perchwell will be inaccessible beginning at 10:00 PM tonight (February 20) for approximately 2 hours to facilitate the transition.

After the changeover, Rapattoni will be the source of truth and editing capabilities will be disabled in Perchwell.

Due to variances in fields and requirements between the two systems, not all information will transition accurately. We request that all listings entered after August 1, 2023, be checked and proactively updated with complete and accurate information.

All listing documentation must be uploaded to the listing in Rapattoni.

If there are issues after the transition, email Support@CincyMLS.com.
